

PSX Historic High, Cross 60,000 Points

The KSE-100 index touched a record high by crossing 60000 points on Tuesday, closing at 60,730.26 points.

The index is up by 918.92 points from its previous day's session, which was 59,811.34 points.

The analyst referred to this bullish trend from last week because of the Profits of Public-Listed Companies, Staff-level Agreement with IMF, Economic Stable Conditions and the Possibility of a decrease in Monetary Policy.
